1. Staff Memorandum

a) Presentation by Consultants of Final Report for Truck Route Bylaw Project

The Administrator, Gary C. Nason, overviewed the project and introduced the consultants.

Mr. Jason Jardine, Delcan Corporation, overviewed the study objectives for this project, overviewed the comments and concerns from the Open Houses held on October 11, 2007, and November 15, 2007, and highlighted the study process. Mr. Jardine discussed the route selection criteria and data to support the selection process, and overviewed the recommended Truck Route Plan components. He emphasized the impact for through traffic only as tourism vehicles would not be affected by the route as they fall under special events. In closing, Mr. Jardine reviewed the next steps and implementation techniques for the proposed Truck Route. He responded to questions from the Committee.

Committee requested that the report be posted on the District's website and that a copy also be made available for public viewing at the library.
